Hot springs

Hot springs in Hokuto you can easily enjoy

Each facility has its own unique charm, such as an open-air bath where you can relax while listening to the murmuring of the river, or a large hot spring facility with an Izakaya restaurant attached. For a limited time, a certain facility offers a "Marmelo Bath," in which Hokuto City's specialty, "marmelo (quince)" is floated in the bathtub. The sweet smell of marmelos will heal your body and soul.

POPULAR SPOTS

Trappist Monastery

Its official name is "Our Lady of the Lighthouse Abbey of the Order of Cistercians of the Strict Observance". Nine monks from France, etc. came to Hokuto to establish Japan's first Trappist Monastery of the Order of Cistercians of the Strict Observance in 1896. Soft-served ice cream using Trappist butter is loved by visitors. In addition, Trappist butter and cookies made in the monastery are popular souvenirs of Hokkaido.

Enjoy the rich flavor of corn and cream with Trappist butter kneaded into them!

Popular Trappist cookies are sold at the shop.

High-quality cameras capture a 360-degree view of sightseeing spots. You can simulate sightseeing with powerful and realistic images!

Kijihiki Highland

This popular leisure spot offers a camping ground where you can easily enjoy outdoor experiences and Takumi-no-Mori Park where you can have a relaxing time surrounded by forests.

1 The panoramic lookout, located 560 meters above sea level, has an observation facility where visitors can enjoy the scenery while relaxing indoors. Spectacular views of Mt. Komagatake, Mt. Hakodate, and the Tsugaru Straits can be enjoyed.

Hokkuru

It has souvenir stores, restaurants, convenience stores, and event space, in addition to antenna shops selling local specialties and hidden masterpieces.

Shin-Hakodate-Hokuto Station

15 seconds from the station

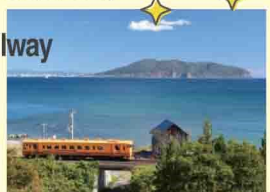

A bronze statue collaborating with the popular manga "Fist of the North Star" is installed. Visitors love to take a commemorative photo in front of the statue.

Local train running along the Tsugaru Straits and the Hakodate Bay

South Hokkaido Railway

This railway takes you to magnificent views in all four seasons and a lot of very attractive tourist spots!

Hokutosei Square

Hot!

The "Sleeping Car Express Hokutosei", which had been operated between Ueno and Sapporo but regrettably retired, is stored and exhibited here. (You can see the exteriors of the train free of charge.)

Oshima-Tobetsu Moheji Kamiiso Goryokaku
Trappist Monastery

1 Weeping cherry tree at Houki Temple

One of the largest weeping cherry trees in Hokkaido, which is said to be approx. 300 years old. You should not miss cherry blossoms lit up at night.

3 Cherry blossom tunnel at the ruins of Matsumae

Cherry blossom tunnel at the ruins of Matsumae

Hokuto cherry cloister

A cherry blossom driving course along the Hokkaido Prefectural Road Route 96 that connects the Weeping cherry tree at Houki Temple, the cherry blossom tunnel at the ruins of Matsumae, rows of cherry trees along the Ono River, and the Kiyokawa Senbonzakura.

Hokuto autumn leaves cloister

You can enjoy the scenery of the four seasons in Hachironuma Park. Colorful autumn leaves that are lit up and reflected on the surface of the Hachironuma pond look fantastic.

Hachironuma Park

Kiyokawa Senbonzakura (Thousands of Cherry Trees)

A row of cherry blossom trees that extends approx. 1.8 kilometers along the Prefectural Road Route 96. Beyond the cherry blossom trees lining up on both sides of the road, Mt. Hakodate can be seen.
